

TWO CREWMEN RESCUED THIS MORNING

33 Others Feared Dead in Ship Sinking

CHARLEVOIX, Mich. (UPI) — Two survivors were rescued today from the sunken cargo ship Carl D. Bradley that foundered in a wild storm in the "graveyard of ships" in the northern reaches of Lake Michigan.

But the wind-lashed waters apparently claimed the lives of 33 other men, including the captain, Roland Bryan, 52, Loudonville, New York. There had been early reports this morning that two more survivors had been sighted on an uninhabited island not far from the sinking, but the report could not be confirmed by the Coast Guard.

THE BODIES OF eight men were sighted floating on shoal water on the north side of Gull Island.

Three of the bodies were picked up by the Coast Guard cutter Sundew. The others were in water too shallow for the Sundew to go in to pick them up, and the lake too rough for the cutter to launch small boats.

THE TWO MEN rescued were First Mate Elmer Fleming and Deck Watchman Frank Mayes, both of Rogers City, Mich. They had succeeded in getting onto a life raft when the Carl D. Bradley broke in two during the storm Tuesday night, and were picked up 14 hours later by the Sundew.

They were suffering from exposure. Fleming told the Coast Guard that the ship broke up in heavy seas. He said "there was no explosion."

THE COAST GUARD withheld questioning either Fleming or Mayes further because the men were suffering from the shock of exposure to their long ordeal. "They are in poor condition," the Sundew captain said.

"We've broken in half, we're going down," was the last message flashed by the Bradley, a 615-foot limestone carrier, late Tuesday.

It was after dark and the lake was kicking up mountainous waves from violent winds up to 60 miles an hour.

THE BRADLEY, a 14,800-ton ship, was returning without cargo from Buffington, Ind., southeast of Chicago on Lake Michigan, to Rogers City.

She ran into trouble about 70 miles west of the Straits of Mackinac, which separates Michigan's two peninsulas, and near treacherous shoal waters around a cluster of large and small islands that dot northern Lake Michigan.

The German ship Satori was the first vessel to reach the area. She Satori searched for hours with the aid of Coast Guard planes that were sent out to drop magnesium flares to light up the area. No sign of the ship, wreckage or any survivors was found during the night long search.

High Winds Trail Vicious Storm System in Nation

United Press International High winds trailed a vicious storm system across the nation's border into Canada today, leaving in its wake at least 14 persons killed by snow, cold and tornado winds.

There were three dead in both Utah and Oklahoma, two dead in Texas and New Mexico, and one dead in South Dakota, Wisconsin, Colorado and Missouri.

Another 16 persons were missing in the snow covered mountains of Arizona, Utah and Colorado.

RESCUERS VIRTUALLY gave up hope for six of the missing, three of them Boy Scouts lost in deep snow in Arizona's Santa Rita Mountains, the last of eight airmen who parachuted in the Magpie Flat area near Huntsville, Utah, and two men whose plane crashed near Fort Collins, Colo.

A search party in Colorado bat-led to within half a mile of the wreckage of the crashed C-46 cargo plane, but had to quit Tuesday night when darkness and howling blizzard made it too dangerous to continue. An Air Force pilot who first spotted the wreckage said he saw no signs of life.

BLIZZARD CONDITIONS swept parts of the Dakotas and Minnesota Tuesday, piling up five-foot drifts along highways in the Grand Forks, N. D., region.

The storm then smashed into Canada, dumping up to 20 inches of snow on Manitoba's Red River Valley in the worst November snowstorm in the province's history. A tornado along the flanks of the storm hit the Port Arthur, Ontario, region.

Cold air radiating out from the storm's core blanketed a vast area of the nation extending from Pennsylvania across eastern Tennessee and Alabama and into the Gulf of Mexico.

Racquet Club Sale Denied, But Stock Deal Possible

Sale of the Palm Springs Racquet Club by owner Charles Farrell for a sum rumored at approximately "a million dollars" has been dispelled by a statement from Farrell.

Farrell told The Desert Sun yesterday that he has been "discussing" the possible sale of Racquet Club stock.

"I AM DISCUSSING it with two friends," the club's owner said. "I have been thinking of such an arrangement for some time now on the assumption that it would best protect the interests of myself and of the club's membership at large."

One of the stipulations of any sale, Farrell said, would be that both he and Manager Sherman Hull be continued in their present capacities for a minimum period of 20 years.

BOTH PARTIES have indicated that they would not be interested in negotiating such a transaction unless present policies and methods of operation are continued.

Farrell declined to name the friends with whom he is discussing the stock transfer for fear of "possible embarrassment" to either or both involved parties.

He said, however, that he would make a following announcement when "any real transaction" is complete.

Pilots Escape Death in Jet Collision

Planes On Routine Training

Navy Lt. Richard Zook, 29, of Peoria Heights, Ill., today is confined to the Balboa Naval Hospital with back injuries sustained while landing by parachute following a mid-air crash with another plane yesterday afternoon.

The two planes, on a routine training flight from El Centro Naval Air Station with two other jets, collided and Lt. Zook's plane was knocked out of the sky. Lt. Zook ejected from his speeding airplane, a F4D-1 Skyray, and reportedly was injured as he hit the ground near Fargo Valley near the Joshua Tree National Monument.

PILOT OF THE other plane, a FJ-4B Fury, Lt. (JG) Vincent Doherty, 26, of Pittsburgh Pa., remained airborne after the collision and flew the plane back to El Centro station despite serious damage to the left side of the plane.

After the crash, the other two planes circled the area, sending out a distress signal which was picked up by Marine helicopters on routine flight missions. They sped to the rescue.

PILOT OF THE first helicopter at the scene of the crash was Major John Curd, Air Search and Rescue, from Santa Ana, who said there was nothing left of the jet fighter following the crash except a "black spot" in the floor of the desert.

The injured pilot was flown to El Centro from the scene of the crash, and after emergency treatment was transferred by ambulance to Balboa Naval Hospital at San Diego.

According to Lt. Ludwig Zurnieden, public information officer at El Centro, both planes were attached to the Fleet Air Gunner Unit based there.

Navaho Missile Explodes, Dives Into Atlantic

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. — (UPI) — The explosion of a Navaho missile high over the Atlantic set the Air Force back a notch today in its research project for the "first true intercontinental bomber."

NRW MARINE CORPS HR26 Helicopters landed in Palm Springs yesterday for refueling after rushing to the scene of the mid-air Navy jet collision at 1:30 yesterday afternoon. The "choppers" were an attraction at the airport and drew many residents who had never seen the air giants before. Pilot of the aircraft in the foreground was Major John Curd of Santa Ana Air Search and Rescue, who was the first at the crash scene. The "pods" on the side of the plane hold the engines that supply power to the overhead propeller. The ship carries a total of 65 troops, plus its crew. (Desert Sun Photo)

Warning Issued On Rose Float Contributions

The Palm Springs entry in the 1959 Tournament of Roses will be abandoned unless $3,000 is raised here before Dec. 1, the president of the city's Float Assn. said yesterday.

Mrs. Theresa Press said the association was granted an extension until the December date by the builders of the float after funds were not available on Nov. 15.

"Very little response resulted from the association's recent plea to the Hotel and Apartment Assn.," she said.

She said that the plea had asked that each hotel and apartment owner contribute $1 for each unit they own. Contributors included the Eldorado Apartments, the Desert Inn, the Starliner Apartment Hotel, El Prado Hotel, El Tram, The Colony, Chuckwalla Manor and Trade Winds Hotel.

Community Concert Group Organized, Three Planned

Formation of the Palm Springs Community Concert Assn. and a three-concert schedule for spring was announced yesterday by J. Bradley Davis, Palm Springs educator and first president of the new organization.

The first of the three concerts has tentatively been scheduled for late January but official opening date will not be announced until next month.

THE FORMATION of the new association here was accomplished during a meeting of music-minded citizens with John Bauer, field representative for Community Concerts Inc., which operates similar programs in more than 1,000 communities in the United States and Canada.

Officers for the association, in addition to Davis, include six vice presidents—Fr. William Blondin, Rev. James Blackstone Jr., Mrs. Alex Hammond, Mrs. Culver Nichols, Stanley Rosin and Herman Ranes — and Mrs. Roger Williams, secretary; Fred Ingram treasurer, and Alex Hammond, concert chairman.

INITIAL PLANNING for the association here calls for a one-week membership drive beginning on Dec. 8 and ending on Dec. 15.

'New Climate'

Desert Residents Urged To Prepare for Population

THOUSAND PALMS — Riverside County Planning Commissioner Lloyd Loveland yesterday urged desert area residents to "create a new climate" for the county's future population.

"We should create a business and recreational climate where we can meet under secure, sensible government with a livable tax picture," Loveland stated.

LOVELAND, SPEAKING before members of the Riverside County Association of Chambers of Commerce, said this was his blueprint of preparation for the future 186,000 residents of the Coachella Valley.

Herbert, Bunker Head United Fund Campaign

Palm Springs hotel owner Keith Herbert was elected president of the United Fund here today and City Attorney Jerry Bunker was named campaign chairman for the annual fund drive.

Election of the two key officers at a United Fund board meeting this morning was followed by appointment of Shelby Langford and Herschel Graham to the board of directors.

Fund officials said they are now preparing to launch their 1958-59 campaign. Campaign headquarters are located in the new United Fund office at 869 North Palm Canyon Drive.

Goal of the new campaign has not been set, but officials said it would be "in the neighborhood" of $100,000.

House Owned By Attorney Harold Simon

Origin of Blaze On Airplane Drive Undetermined

Fire of undetermined origin swept through the home of Palm Springs attorney Harold Simon this morning, gutting the house at 226 Airplane Drive and destroying its contents.

Fire Marshal Warren Heath estimated the loss at approximately $20,000.

THE BLAZE APPARENTLY broke out shortly before 9 a.m. A neighbor called the alarm to the Palm Springs Fire Dept. and four units — two pumpers and two pickup trucks — responded to the call. A pickup from the Fire Marshal's station here also raced to the scene.

The five pieces of equipment and a force of nearly a score of firemen were no match for the fire which had gained a head start and was burning in every room of the fashionable, three-room home by the time the fire fighters arrived.

DESTROYED IN THE blaze, in addition to the furnishings of the house, was a 1950 Oldsmobile sedan. Three parakeets, and one dog, pets of the Simons, perished in the fire.

Mrs. Simon, who had started her day routinely by doing some laundry, was taken to a doctor at 9 a.m. for sedation. She was still under medical care this afternoon.

Palm Springs police added the note that two motorists passing the scene were issued citations for driving across fire hoses.

FIRE CAPT. WARREN Empey said that there was no evidence on which to base a conclusion on the origin of the fire.

"A neighbor told me that she heard an explosion and that a second later she saw a sheet of flame shoot out the Simon's chimney," Empey said. "Mr. Simon told me that he had left a fire burning in the fireplace when he left for work."

He said that Fire Marshal Heath would launch an investigation to determine the cause of the fire, "probably within two days."

BE HAPPY, THEN BOOZE IT UP, SAYS ALCOHOLISM CHIEF

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — If you are happy, take a drink. Otherwise leave the alcohol stuff alone.

That's the advice of R. Brinkley Smithers, president of the National Council of Alcoholism. "Drinking is part of our way of life. It's wonderful," Smithers said Tuesday. "It helps relieve tensions." But not when you're sad or depressed, he said.

Smithers warned drinking creates a problem for one out of every 15 drinkers.

He listed three danger signs for drinkers to observe if they want to avoid becoming alcoholics:

—You feel you need a drink to bolster your confidence.

—You can't remember what you did after having several drinks.

—You drink faster than most of those around you.

Guild President Morris Teitelbaum, with the new officers and directors, said that the program will consist of modified, 15-minute individual class inspection with teachers at the school discussing what is taught and how they teach it.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sorenson, membership chairman for the Guild, said yesterday that a membership drive will officially begin in conjunction with the open house. Parents will be able to secure their membership cards in the school's homemaker room. New officers of the Guild, in addition to Teitelbaum and the Sorensons, include Mrs. Jack Copass, vice president; Mrs. Fred Kehlet, secretary; Mrs. Herbert Eschitz, treasurer; Mrs. Philip Zanville, hospitality chairman, and Mrs. Robert Backstrom, publicity chairman. The conference, now under way at the El Mirador Hotel, involves more than 250 military and civilian aircraft safety specialists, all concerned with the problem of escape systems. Autograph Hunters Face Many Obstacles on 'Big Fisherman' Set

La Quinta Location Is Used

LA QUINTA — If motorists cruising Highway 99 think they're seeing a camel-borne Arabian army led by a dark-skinned prince on a huge Arabian horse riding in the shadow of the Santa Rosa range, they needn't rub their eyes.
 It's just those scampers from Hollywood, up to their old tricks.

THE MOVIE IS "The Big Fisherman" and it's about Simon Peter, who had a reputation as a real hell-raiser around the bars in Galilee before he met a man named Jesus of Nazareth. The screenplay is taken from the book of the same name by the late Lloyd C. Douglas.

Howard Keel plays the role, but don't hurry off to get his autograph. You'll have to wade your way through several herds of broad-tailed sheep, desert-hardened goats, soulful-eyed camels and proud, excitable Arabian horses — all imported expressly for the film — that are located here.

IF YOU BYPASS that major obstacle, you've still got the difficult part of the chore ahead of you. Keel looks a lot like anyone else on the set — clad most of the time in a burnoose — and there are about 200 of them around, including John Saxon, who shares billing with Keel and Susan Kohner. (You wouldn't mistake Susan for Keel since she is most often attired in a princess' costume which does not include a burnoose.)

And, anyway, you wouldn't know where to start looking in the set here. It's a replica of a sprawling Arabian tent city, located at the end of Miles Avenue. Where cactus, sage and sand formerly stood in complete privacy, more than a hundred tents now range. In the middle of the encampment is the king's tent, a beautifully appointed dwelling even by the standards of this resort area.

KEEL ISN'T in the tent, either. He's probably in one of the trailers that are used for make-up purposes or, if he's free, in his own trailer. (But he could be in India, or Palm Springs or just anywhere else.)

Director Frank Borsage expects to be at La Quinta for another week shooting the Rowland V. Lee production so the film folk will be knee-deep on a tall Villager for at least that long.

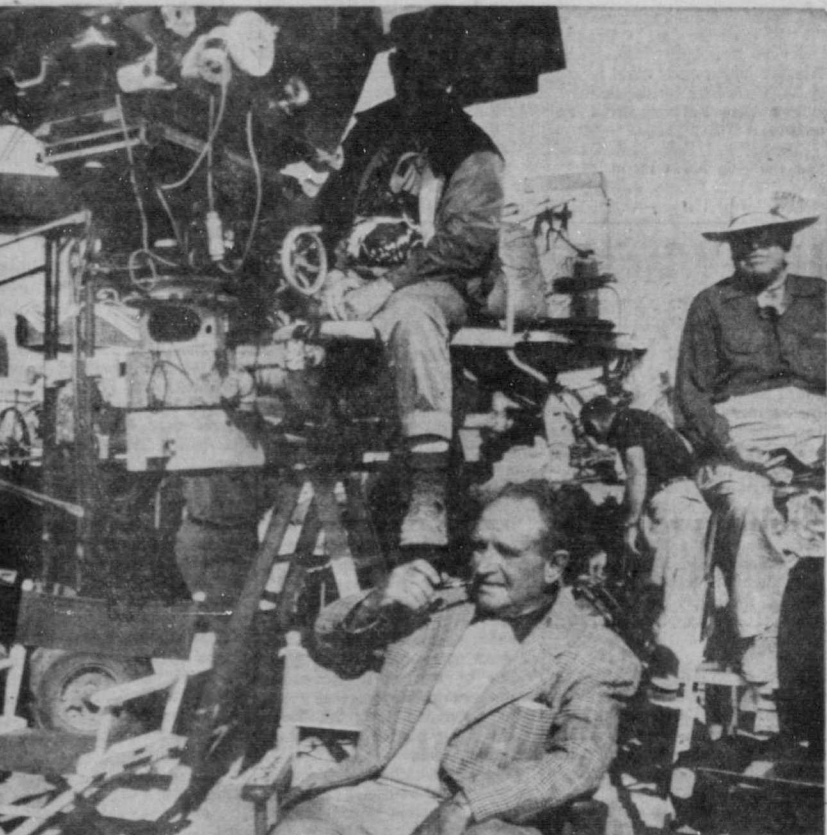

If those obstacles aren't enough to dissuade autograph hunting, there are the ones manufactured by the elements. Wind has whipped the tent city twice since the shooting started, doing damage that has been estimated in five figures. Sand sprays through the area each time a gust of wind leaps from the desert floor.

If you're determined to have Keel's autograph, your best bet is to stand at the corner of Palm Canyon Drive and Amado Road. He'll probably walk by before you've been here a half an hour.

And you won't have to hazard wind, sand, Arabs or camels, either.

A PUBLICIST, AN extra and a prop man team up to hoist saddle for John Saxon, right, one of the stars of "The Big Fisherman." Saxon plays an Arab prince in the story of Simon Peter, now in production at nearby La Quinta. (Desert Sun Photo)

BETWEEN TAKES, Director Frank Borsage lets up, lights up his pipe. He has five or six weeks ahead of him shooting "The Big Fisherman" on location at La Quinta. Desert winds have whipped the camp of the film company. (Desert Sun Photo)

PALM DESERT WOMAN'S CLUB SETS SECOND MEETING OF FALL SEASON

PALM DESERT — The second meeting of the season of the Palm Desert Woman's Club will be held at the Shadow Mountain Club on Thursday, Nov. 20, with luncheon at 12:30 followed by a business meeting and program.

Waiver of Parking Need To Be Denied

Council Indicates
Community Church
Must Secure Lot

Palm Springs City Council this week indicated that it would deny a variance request by the Community Church for a waiver of parking requirements on the new proposed sanctuary.

Members of the council, after talking over the requested variance at its conference meeting, said that they should not vary from their policy of sticking strictly to their parking code.

Although the church is planning additional parking, it will fall approximately 20 per cent short (about 30 spaces) and the council opinion was that if they can build the new building they should be able to afford the additional parking.

A question arose at the council session last Wednesday over the possibility of the church group building the new church with certain deed restrictions on the property, but the council felt it was more a problem for the church trustees than the city.

If the problem of parking is resolved by the church, another variance will have to be considered—the question of the height of the tower and cross on the new structure.

Toastmasters, Lions to Hold Joint Meeting

The Palm Springs Toastmasters are assured of a huge turnout when they hold their November meeting at 7:15 p. m., Thursday, in Laurie's Steak Ranch.

The reason? The place will be loaded with Cathedral City Lions in addition to the Toastmasters.

Because the Lions' regular meeting would have fallen on Thanksgiving Day, officials of both organizations decided to combine the two meetings with speakers from the Toastmasters and the Lions sharing the podium.

Stallings to Be Featured Speaker

Wes Stallings, Hollywood comic and ventriloquist, will be featured speaker when the Palm Springs Christian Business Men's Assn. meets at 7 a. m., Saturday, in the Huddle Springs.

To: Our Customers

This time of year, we at Mayfair are faced with the decision of what grade of turkeys we are going to offer our customers. We are sure you will be happy to know that we are going to again feature a U.S.D.A. Inspected Grade "A" Turkey.

This is somewhat a hard decision to make. It is possible that competition will offer a second grade bird at a lesser price; however, we know that this is a false economy, as the entire meal is planned around the festive bird.

This year something new has been added. We have personally selected these turkeys from high-altitude flocks that are specially bred and specially fed for less bone and more white meat, with shorter, thicker legs and so much more breast than ordinary turkeys that we call them "Mayfresh Double-breasted." You can be assured that with Mayfair's money-back guarantee, you are getting the finest!

Completely Remodeled Thrifty Drug to Hold Grand Opening Sale

Facilities Greatly Expanded

Completely remodeled, Thrifty's Palm Springs store will celebrate its "new look" with a 10-day sales spree — a Grand Opening Sale — beginning Thursday, it was announced yesterday.

Thrifty Manager Tom Carpenter said that the store, remodeled to incorporate an "economy of movement," has virtually completed the two-month remodeling phase.

"IT'S THE LAST word in merchandising," he said, proudly. "A lot of thought went into the remodeling of this store."

The store has gained more than a remodeling. Included in the comprehensive plans for the "new" Thrifty are these features:

- 1 — AN ENLARGED liquor department that boasts more space for liquors and a walk-in beverage display case.
- 2 — Additional seating facilities in the fountain area. Patrons will get faster service as a result.
- 3 — New tobacco department with an enlarged line of tobacco supplies.
- 4 — Completely fitted glassware and bar accessories section, a new department included in the remodeling.
- 5 — SELF-SERVICE hosiery unit which allows customers to find their own Lady Wildshire nylons without difficulty.
- 6 — New hand-dip ice cream department with Thrifty's own award-winning ice cream featured as the main dish.

"We'll be able to process thousands of customers through the store each day now," Carpenter said. "If fact, we've had to hire nearly 15 new employees to handle the initial influx of trade."

The Grand Opening Sale will continue through Nov. 29.

School Dental Survey Planned

PALM DESERT — Dr. Harold Jensen, who recently opened offices in the new Pelgrim building, was appointed this week to make a dental survey of all the school children in the Palm Desert and Indio area. The survey of the Palm Desert children will take place Friday, Nov. 21.

Originally from the Pacific Northwest, Dr. Jensen and his wife, Louise, moved to Palm Desert last spring from the Westchester area in Los Angeles where the doctor practiced dentistry for the last 12 years.

Funds Granted for Four County Institutions by State

SACRAMENTO — Funds in excess of $405,000 have been granted for use in four Riverside County institutions at the request of State Senator Nelson S. Dilworth.

An announcement from the Senator, which also noted the absence of any Republicans on the Public Works Board, said that buildings at the Indio and Hemet fairs, an addition of the University of California's Riverside campus, and aid for the California School for the Deaf at Riverside all received approval.

THE FUNDS WERE granted for:

- New exhibit buildings and comfort and rest facilities at the Indio Fairgrounds, in a total of $320,000.
- A new exhibit building at the Hemet Fairgrounds, to cost $50,000.
- Extension of a heating plant at the UCR campus, to cost $18,400.

RESTORATION OF a $17,479.60 slash in an appropriation for the institution for the deaf. The funds were restored.

Dilworth lauded the work of State Assemblyman Lee Backstrand in gaining the approval for the appropriations. At the same time the senator said that he was "interested to note" that no Southern California senators have been assigned to the Public Works Board. He did not elaborate.

Hawaii asked to be annexed to the United States and was voted permission in 1898.

CHP Advises Pedestrians of Responsibility

Traffic safety is the responsibility of pedestrians as well as motorists, California Highway Patrol Commissioner B. R. Caldwell said today while observing that 807 pedestrians were killed and 11,388 injured last year in accidents in California.

"If you walk at night, wear or carry something white" is a sound piece of advice," Caldwell continued, "but it is not a guarantee of safety. A pedestrian who assumes that the approaching motorist will see his white garment or article is taking too big a gamble. Waiting a few seconds until the danger is past is a much safer procedure to follow."

The commissioner noted that crossing a street or road at a place other than an intersection is a leading cause of pedestrian accidents. These accidents, he said, generally reflect pedestrian carelessness because the California vehicle codes states "every pedestrian crossing a roadway at a point other than within a marked crosswalk or within an unmarked crosswalk at an intersection shall yield the right of way to all vehicles upon the roadway."

"Almost one-third of the pedestrians killed last year died in this kind of accident. This is tragic evidence of the necessity for pedestrians to use greater care for their own safety," Caldwell concluded.

Escrow Officials To Meet Nov. 20. At Beaumont

A delegation of Palm Springs escrow officials will be in attendance when the Riverside County Escrow Assn. meets at 7:30 p.m., Thursday, in El Rancho Restaurant in Beaumont.

Mrs. Eunice Tiss, president of the association, will discuss the standardization of escrow practices, and Harold Pilsbush, of Orange County Title Co., will tell of preferred recitals in escrow processing.

Approximately 100 escrow personnel are expected to attend, Mrs. Tiss said, noting that no December meeting of the association has been scheduled.

City to Consider Police Car Award

City Council at its next meeting will consider a recommendation by Director of Public Works Frank Hamerschlag to purchase a new police car from Plaza De-Soto-Plymouth, low bidder at $2,353.63.

This is the first time that the city will have changed from the well known Ford Interceptors, but the new Plymouth meets all the specifications of the bid and is almost $400 under the next bid, Hamerschlag reported.

A survey of 1,904 hospitals in the U.S. found that 63 per cent of today's infants are bottle-fed. In 1946, only 36 per cent were.

The Bull Hasn't got A Chance

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press International
MEXICO CITY (UPI) — Hemingway and other aficionados of the so-called "bull fight" can get an argument from me today against the benefits—esthetic or otherwise—to be derived from what shapes up as a match between Shirley Temple and Jack the Ripper.

Understand, old fearless, or "el viejo intrepido" as I am known cautiously in these parts, isn't an expert. I saw my first—and last—bull fight in these precincts and I have to figure anybody who goes this way has to delight in such items as hari-kiri, Buchenwald roulette and the beating of mothers-in-law.

THE POOR BULL has as much chance as a dozen eggs in a concrete mixer. The experts tell you, with a local shrug of the shoulders, that these aren't supposed to be "fights" in the first place. The "corrida" actually is simply a "running of the bulls."

That explains it. They run and bleed the poor critter into exhaustion and then the matador puts out the lights with a sword which is appropriately bent so that it slides more easily into the proper lethal spot.

Dress it up all you want with such fancy phrases as "the moment of truth," which is when the matador poses himself over the horns and prepares to slide home the shiv, but by this time the bull has just about "had it."

THERE ARE THREE phases to a bull fight. Aesthetically these are listed as the "tercio de varas," which means when the picadors ride in and gouge the bull with iron spikes on the end of a long rod such as is used in pole vaulting; the "tercio de banderillas," when three daring gents jam long painful darts into the bull's hump; and the "tercio de muerte," which means that the matador waits until the bull has almost bled to death and then administers the coup de grace.

They ignore the best phase. That's when the bull full of vinegar dashes into the ring and everybody else is safely ensconced behind the wooden barrier. This is the time "el toro" might have a fair shot at somebody. But the people hiding behind the bastions aren't considered "cowards."

THE BULL is when he lunges at the picador aboard a horse decked out in mattresses, and feeling the long needle-nosed pole jammed into his nose, is considered a "coward" if he decides to back off.

This happened at my first bull fight and a lovely señorita in front of me held her nose daintily and asserted "the bull is a coward."

"Well, if he's such a coward," I suggested, "why doesn't the matador fight him barehanded?" This of course isn't done. Eventually when "el toro" had been worn down to a bloody nubbin, the matador emerged and, swirling his cape majestically, showed everybody how brave he was. He even held his back to the exhausted bull and waved him by in reverse like an intoxicated switchman motioning a switch engine into a siding. Then he stabbed the critter and that was that.

Two new polo fields are ready at Eldorado and some fast action is planned this winter.

The game with San Francisco will mark the start of a 15-game scheduled for Eldorado's fields.

Lislie Nixon, Erwin Anisz and Morrie Morrison round out the Eldorado team with Tevis.

On the San Francisco team for this first game will be Ted Pierce, Peter Hitchcock, Willis Allen and Bob Smith.

Golf Tourney of Roses To Draw Large Field

Indian Wells Golf Course, Western Hills Hotel, Scene of Benefit Event

Plans for the Golf Tournament of Roses to be staged at Indian Wells Country Club next Sunday are being expanded as many entries are being received for the event.

The tournament and the evening party at Desi Arnaz Western Hills Hotel, following the tournament, is being staged as a benefit for the Palm Springs Flood Association which will enter a float in the Rose Tournament parade at Pasadena next January 1.

All proceeds from greens fees in the tournament and from an auction sale of merchandise contributed by merchants of the area at Western Hills that night, go to the flood fund.

Top entertainment stars will compete in the golf tournament and also contribute to the evening's fun at Western Hills Hotel. Among them are Desi Arnaz, Phil Harris, Hoagy Carmichael, Ralph Kiner, Randy Scott and others.

Co-chairmen of the big day are Eddie Susalla, manager of Indian Wells and Don Cameron, president of the Rancho Mirage Chamber of Commerce.

NEW YORK (UPI) — The national leading harness racing officials open a three-day rules conference today in the New York Commission offices.

Illness May End Baseball Career Of Schoendienst

MILWAUKEE (UPI) — Second baseman Red Schoendienst, an "important guy" with the Milwaukee Braves, faced the toughest battle of his baseball career today—overcoming tuberculosis, a disease that probably will keep him from the diamond next season.

Schoendienst, a 35-year-old baseball veteran, was plagued with colds and soreness in his chest throughout the 1958 season and it was confirmed Tuesday night he is suffering from tuberculosis, a malady which strikes without discrimination.

Although his doctors, teammates, friends and bosses were confident the Braves' "little general" will make a successful recovery from tuberculosis, the possibility was raised that being off the playing field for perhaps a year or more might make it very hard for Schoendienst to make a comeback as a player.

John Quinn, general manager of the Braves, said "the only thing we are interested in now is the doctor's decision that Red is going to be all right. It will take time, we understand. We'll be disappointed if he can't play, but the principal thing is Red's recovery."

Quinn said the Braves have good replacements for Schoendienst in Mel Roach, Felix Mantilla and Casey Wise, with Roach, who now is recovering from knee surgery, about the best permanent prospect.

Schoendienst began his major league career with the Cardinals in 1945 after spending three years in the minors. The second baseman went to the Giants and then the Braves in 1957. He has played in three World Series and nine All-Star games.

Indians Wind Up Season Friday Night at Perris

Palm Springs Indians, currently in a three-way tie for second place in the Riverside County League football race, wind up their 1958 season next Friday night at Perris and are favored to finish no worse than second. Banning, one of the teams tied with the Indians meets Elsinore which hasn't won a game and is also favored to remain in the second place tie.

The resurgent Beaumont Cougars go to Coachella and unless a startling upset is registered, will probably drop out of the second place picture.

The Coachella Arabs have the title clinched even if the Cougars upset them.

The game Friday night at Perris ends up the season for the Tribe who came within a disputed loss to San Jacinto and a thrilling last moment play against the Arabs which fell short by a few yards, from registering an undefeated mark this year for Coach Clare Ballagh.

Game time at Perris is 8 p.m.

James Second in Scoring Race in County League

Cleo James, Palm Springs Indian fullback's four touchdowns racked up against Hemet High last Friday night kept him in second place in the Riverside County League scoring race, two touchdowns and 12 points back of Beaumont's Larry Rubidoux.

Rubidoux has 84 points in RCL competition, James, 72. Rubidoux must tangle with the league-leading Coachella Arabs this week while James has a chance to catch him, meeting seventh place Perris High.

Gary Easton of the Tribe is in the first 10 with four TDs and 24 points.

Joe Lewis, the Indians' place-kicker, has successfully converted 13 times to hold second spot in that department. Leader is Ed Sweitzer of Beaumont.

Bears No Cinch For Rose Bowl

By HAL WOOD, United Press International
SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The wisdom of a Solomon will be needed to pick the Pacific Coast Conference representative to the Rose Bowl if California should lose to Stanford Saturday. And if Southern California, Washington State and Oregon State win their contests.

Contrary to a lot of thinking, California is not a shoo-in for the Rose Bowl assignment, win or lose.

If the Golden Bears win, they get the automatic nomination. If they lose, while the other clubs in contention win, the standings will be like this: California, 5-2, USC 5-2, WSC 6-2, and OSC 6-2.

WILL MR. SOLOMON please take it from there, and take these things into consideration:

1—There is some claim that victories over Idaho, which count in the Pacific Coast Conference standings, do not count in the Rose Bowl race, as the Southern schools do not play the Vandals. Eliminating Idaho, that would make all four records 5-2.

2—Tradition says that, if two teams are tied for the lead, the winner of the game between these two clubs goes to the Rose Bowl. But in this situation there is no winner: USC beat Oregon State, Oregon State beat California, Cal beat Washington State and Washington State beat Oregon State. So they all, more or less, beat each other.

3—BUT CALIFORNIA and USC each beat two of the three opponents in this round-robin. Oregon State and Washington State won only one game in this competition.

4—Faculty representatives from all nine schools are eligible to vote on the Rose Bowl team—and it doesn't necessarily have to be the champion. However, the North holds the balance of power, with five schools, against four in California. They have been sticking together quite strongly during the break-up of the conference.

5—If the balloting ends in a tie, the PCC rules call for the team that hasn't been there for the longest time to go. In this case, if there was a tie involving all four schools, then Washington State would be the winner, because the Cougars haven't been there since 1931.

6—Off their records against Oregon State and Washington State, the other two teams in contention, it would appear Southern California and California have the best chance.

7—If there is a tie between these two schools, then California would be the logical choice because the Golden Bears beat the Trojans—and the Bears haven't been to the Rose Bowl since 1949.

Mrs. Weismuller Leads Round Up Tourney With 75

Arlene Weismuller of Lakeside took over the lead as the large field completed the first round in the annual Ladies Golf Round-Up at Thunderbird Country Club Tuesday.

She shot a 75 to pass Lanny Cranston who completed her first round of 18 Monday with a 79. Betty Loveys of Lakeside and Ruth McCullah, former state champion, of Riviera were tied for third with 80s.

LOW NET LEAD for the first 18 was a tie between Mary Guelich of Thunderbird and Mrs. Weismuller. Mrs. Guelich had a card of 82 which, with her 11 handicap, gave her a 71. Mrs. Weismuller's 4-handicap gave her a 71 net, too.

Peggy Lester with an 81 and a handicap of 9, was second with 82. Lanny Cranston's 79 minus a six handicap put her third with 73.

THE FIELD, with one third playing a round on two of the three days set aside for the tournament, will complete play today with prizes to be awarded tonight. Scores of the leaders at the end of the first round:

LOW GROSS

Quantico Marines edged them 13-12 last weekend for their first loss. That first game on Nov. 6, 1869, started this weekend madness which draws thousands each week to the nation's gridirons. PETROL SPEEDING NOT HIM, CLAIMS PASTOR IN ENGLAND

SALISBURY, England (UPI) — The Rev. John Wansey was fined $8.40 for speeding today despite his plea that high test gasoline made him drive faster than the 30 mile per hour limit. "A premium motor fuel had been put into the tank, not by me, and I was unaccustomed to its unique powers," he said in a letter to the court. "It made me travel at a higher speed when the accelerator pedal was in the normal position for 30 mph."

Thousand Palms Chamber To Delay Drive for Overpass

THOUSAND PALMS—The Chamber of Commerce here, which only last week launched a drive for construction of an overpass and traffic interchange at the intersection of Ramon Road and Highway 60-70-99, said yesterday that it "will not push" for the construction.

Mrs. Mina Welcome, president of the Thousand Palms Chamber, said that she had been apprised by District Engineer C. V. Kane, of the California Highway Dept., that "action is underway to provide illumination at this intersection." She said in view of the intended action, the Chamber would halt its overpass-interchange campaign.

SHE ADDED that Kane had also told her that the lighting of the deadly intersection was only a stop-gap measure as reported in The Desert Sun Saturday, and that the Chamber's initial demand would be met "as funds are available for construction of the overpass."

Kane had previously told The Desert Sun that the Highway Dept.

was studying a possible lighting of the intersection. The tragic Nov. 8 collision that claimed three lives there occurred at night.

LIGHTING "MAY solve our problem," Kane said. He also told The Desert Sun at that time that mercury vapor lighting would "most likely" be the choice for the job. Final engineering is still in the future for the job, Kane also said.

"Excellent photographs have been obtained on a test basis," said a police department spokesman. "We must now wait for a burglar to invade the premises of an establishment protected with the test camera."

AF Appointment For Hero's Son Sought by Ike

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — President Eisenhower today asked who ever is president in 1972 to appoint the son of a hero of the super-sonic age to the Air Force Academy.

Eisenhower presented a copy of his letter to the president of 1972 to Mrs. Iven C. Kincheloe Jr., the attractive young widow of an Air Force captain who died last July in a crash in the world's fastest military plane, the F-104.

The chief executive followed a precedent set shortly after Pearl Harbor by the late President Roosevelt. Roosevelt addressed a letter then to the President of 1956 asking appointment to the Military Academy at West Point for the son of one of America's first World War II heroes, Capt. Colin P. Kelly Jr., who died when he dived his flying fortress at a Japanese battleship three days after Pearl Harbor.

The four parasites, according to authoritative estimates, infest 1,243,200,000 persons in the world, 22,000,000 of them in the United States.

The drug was developed by Eli Lilly and Company and tested at Louisiana State University. It is taken by mouth as a pill; its trade name is "Delvex."

The four parasites it fights are whipworm, threadworm, roundworm and pinworm.

New Demotion For Bulganin

MOSCOW (UPI) — Diplomatic sources reported today that former Premier Nikolai Bulganin, linked last week for the first time with the so-called "anti-party clique," has been removed from his post as Chairman of the Economic Council in faraway Stavropol.

Bulganin was dispatched to the North Caucasus city last summer after his quiet demotion from ministerial rank as Chairman of the State Bank, the post he had been given after giving up the Premiership to Nikita Khrushchev.

Panhellenic Goes National

Coachella Valley Panhellenic will affiliate with the National Panhellenic Conference. It was decided at the regular luncheon meeting Thursday at Desert Air Hotel. The local group has grown from 10 founding members to a current roster of 140 members, and is composed of college women who hold memberships in the 32 national sororities recognized by the national council. Mrs. J. N. Blatt of Indio is president. To Mrs. Edward C. Ruge of Indio goes the credit for starting the organization and skipping it for the first two years.

This is a gay, light-hearted group that gathers for monthly luncheon meetings at clubs, hotels, and members' homes up and down the valley. The cosmopolitan group manages to contribute to the community in a charming, seemingly effortless way by giving an annual small-scale scholarship tea with a guest list limited to members and friends. The William Carter home in Bernuda Dunes will again be the setting for this year's benefit. The other annual affair is the Senior Girls Tea, given at a member's home to honor graduating girls from the high schools of the area. Mrs. James O'Reilly will be chairman of the scholarship tea this year, and Mrs. Robert Schlesinger will head

Woman's Club Hears Charm Talk, Passes the Fashion Count

Palm Springs Woman's Club met at their club house Monday afternoon to be gaily entertained by Miss Daisy Fairbanks who brought the group, an interesting charm and fashion lecture that will me long remembered. Miss Fairbanks used as her topic "Psychology of Charm." She told of a count system used by fashion experts to gauge the correctness of a costume, and one of the interesting features of the day was when Miss Fairbanks had several of the club members come on the stage to have the count system applied to them. The club was proud to learn that the members used for the experiment all came within a correct fashion approval count. At this meeting Mrs. Herbert Burns, club president, graciously welcomed the following new members: Mmes. Llewellyn Egerton, Jantha Gooch, Charlotte Goodwin, Harry Henkle, Irving Jones, Charles Netherby, Wm. Ross, D. J. Witharm, Herbert Wyckoff and Mary Young.

Tea was served with Mrs. Roy W. Burton as tea chairman assisted by Mmes. Doak Davis, Albert Piske, William Froude, Claude Gottebehuelt, Fred McGee, Robert Richie, Brian Sanders, Velma Price and Miss Hazel Gross. Mrs. Paul Burkholder and Mrs. George Chandler poured.

Chill candles in the refrigerator for 24 hours before using. They will burn evenly and will not drip.

DEAR ABBY...

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Maybe I have rocks in my head but I married the same man twice and we were divorced twice because we fought all the time. Everybody in my family (and his) got their mouths into it and talked us into going back together because of our kids. The same thing is happening again. Our divorce became final in October and now he wants me to remarry him again in time for Christmas. He is a heavy drinker and is always mixed up with two or three women. My children would have a nicer Christmas if I tried again. Should I marry him a third time or leave well enough alone?

UNDECIDED
DEAR UNDECIDED: Don't let the Christmas spirit fog up your thinking. You have to live with him 365 days of the year. Take your time and think it over and over and over.

DEAR ABBY: For my 35th wedding anniversary my husband bought me a plot in a cemetery. Maybe I shouldn't have said the things I did, but how would any wife feel to get this kind of a present when she was expecting a new sewing machine? Was I wrong in feeling hurt?

STILL LIVING
DEAR STILL: Your husband's gift was "down to earth" . . . but I think he should have bought you something for the here and now.

DEAR ABBY: I am madly in love with a certain boy. I am in the 9th grade and he's in the 10th. The trouble is this. We don't know each other. He is quite bashful and I'd be too embarrassed to ask anyone to introduce us and we don't live close enough to meet by accident. Don't use my name, but sign me "Dying to meet him" and I don't mind if you put this in the paper because lots of other girls have the same problem and your answer might help them.

DYING TO MEET HIM
DEAR "DYING": The best approach is the DIRECT approach. When you see him, maneuver yourself within "Hi" distance and simply smile and say "Hi!" Once the girl breaks the ice, it's easy for a bashful boy to thaw out.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I had quite an experience with Sunday pests. Pretty soon we did not dare to make any plans of our own because we knew these pests would drop in on us. They stayed so late they kept us from going to bed at our usual bedtime. Finally I could take no more without losing my dignity so I sat down and wrote to them. That ended it. They haven't spoken to us since — and they haven't spoiled any more Sundays either.

The pen can be mightier than the sword, Abby.
Yours truly,
LIVE AND LEARN

DEAR "LIVE": I'm sure they got the point.

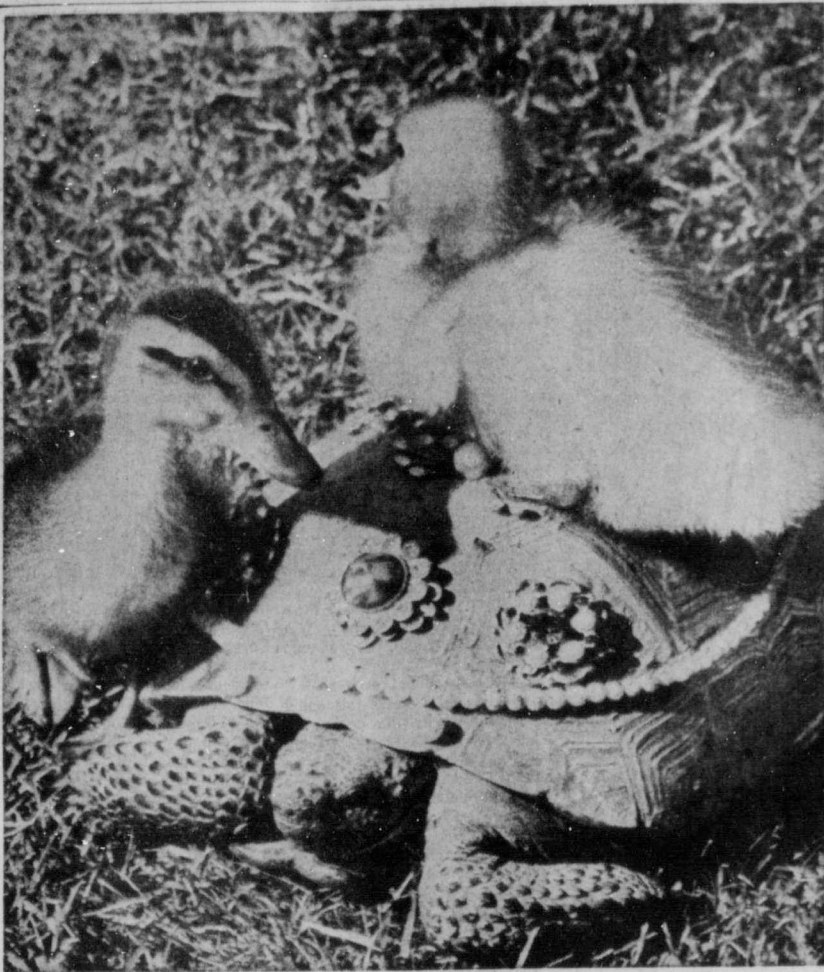

DEAR ABBY: I was an elevator operator up until yesterday when I lost my job because an old maid who lives in the building told the superintendent that I got the elevator stuck between the floors on purpose. She was the only one in the elevator at the time and she started to scream and holler and went into hysterics. I didn't even touch her but she told the superintendent that I tried to kiss her. I wouldn't kiss her if she was made of honey. How can I get my job back?

DEAR JOBLESS: It's up to you to convince the superintendent that the lady's charges are false. Perhaps others in the building will vouch for your character. You can't keep a good elevator man down. Good luck

For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this paper. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

If you want a collection of Abby's best letters and answers in one book, ask your bookdealer to get "DEAR ABBY" for you.

DON'T PIN A ROSE ON ME, says Farouk, the bejeweled turtle. Farouk, it seems, is a very particular shellback—he prefers diamonds and emeralds, dime store variety, of course. Now comfortably established at Firecliff Lodge in Palm Desert with five similarly decorated turtle pals, Farouk daily holds court at the Firecliff swimming pool, where he's always drawing admiring glances from hotel guests and discriminating ducklings. Farouk is the property of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Coleman, managers of Firecliff Lodge. The celebrated shellback and his cronies are happy to receive gifts—in the form of costume jewelry which is plastered to the turtle's backs—from hotel guests.

Real Estate Investment Future Brightest In Desert Region

From time immemorial real estate has been regarded as being the most basically sound investment a person can make.

Ownership of a home provides a firm family foundation. The individual who owns a farm, income property, lots or acreage is generally considered a fortunate and wise investor.

Regardless of the financial conditions of the country, real estate has proven, both in good times and bad, to be one of the safest and surest forms of investment. This is widely recognized by banks, insurance and other financial institutions as well as many private companies, corporations and individuals.

Real estate offers a wide variety of choice to the buyer as well as many special advantages and usages to the owner. Being tangible and imperishable it is a common means of security for cash loans when desired. It is frequently used in trades and exchanges; often for further investments in development and improvement, and frequently for steady income. Even short term speculation is occasionally profitable in certain areas and localities where large expenditures enhance nearby properties and benefit entire communities.

Over the nation as a whole the real estate market is the largest in dollar volume. From farm to city a percentage of the population will always be buying, selling, building, improving or trading properties.

Prices vary in different sections depending upon many factors including the type and desirability, but in every instance there is dependable market information and services in each community through established real estate and financial institutions.

Here in Palm Springs where we are in the center of the trend towards settlement and development of the most desirable part of the great California desert, real estate has literally become our most important "product."

With many millions of dollars being invested in new homes, commercial construction expansion of all kinds in the outlying sections, almost countless buying and selling opportunities exist of every variety. Desirability of property is high, volume large and professionally expert advice, assistance and service readily available at all times.

The steady population increase and continuing development now projected for months and years ahead, in addition to the growing tendency of the public to invest in real estate in the general era of rising prices, combine to make the future outlook here the brightest it has ever been.

Last year The DESERT SUN, in its annual Progress Edition, remarked editorially of our growth that we "hadn't seen the half of it, yet." Even though an additional $20,000,000 has been invested in real estate in the area during the intervening time, that statement still stands.

Just as people have long known that real estate is one of the soundest of all investments, they are now convinced in increasing numbers that the best investments in real estate, now and for the years to come, exist right here in our ever popular, sunny, scenic and thoroughly delightful desert paradise.

The land of the free
Where all have a chance
And even a dog
Has change in his pants

America is truly the land of opportunity where a horse can earn a million dollars. And in Palm Springs even a dog can have a credit rating.

NOW TO BRING Jo-Jo back into the news. He has been rather neglected the past few weeks and grows at Harry Oliver when he sees him because H. O. has been getting more publicity. I'll make up for that today because I've just discovered that Jo-Jo has an account at Mills Liquor Store.

Not for the liquor. Jo-Jo hates the stuff and shuns those people who over-indulge.

HIS ACCOUNT is for beef jerky which he loves.

Before proceeding, perhaps I had better explain that Jo-Jo is that well-known under-slung dog of dubious ancestry, the real dog-about-town, known to most every Villager.

He is the property of Joe Portnoy, also known around these parts. At least, that's the legal aspects of the case although actually Joe is the property of Jo-Jo.

ANYWAY, TO get back to Jo-Jo's financial set up.

Seems Jo-Jo loves beef jerky and eats 10 to 12 dime packs of it a day.

It all started, I understand when Marge, at Mills, substituted a pack of the jerky for the bologna she gave Jo-Jo every evening. He gulped it and asked for more.

And thus started a new chapter in his life.

PATRONS of the store are in the act. They buy a 10-cent pack for Jo-Jo as he trots in at dinner time.

Jo-Jo is always on hand. If his friends loiter on the sidewalk outside too long, Jo-Jo goes out and gently tugs at their trouser legs, leading them to the jerky rack.

Marge says that business got so brisk that she had to triple the jerky order.

THERE WERE TIMES when Jo-Jo, with important business elsewhere as fire plug inspector, didn't get to Mills on time.

So his friends got to leaving a dime with Marge.

"That's for Jo-Jo's dinner," they'd say.

And Jo-Jo's credit mounted. It sometimes neared a dollar.

WELL, ANYWAY, the news got back to Joe Portnoy that his pal had a credit at Mills.

Naturally, he was pleased beyond the telling. For Joe thinks Jo-Jo is the smartest dog ever. And he's not far wrong.

The other night Joe was making a purchase at the delicatessen counter at Mills and found himself just a little bit short.

INSTEAD OF ASKING to sign a tab, he turned to Jo-Jo, peacefully snoozing after eight packs of Jerky.

"Jo-Jo, could you loan me a quarter until Saturday?"

Jo-Jo got up, gave Joe a sad look and walked out.

STAN DELAPLANE'S Postcard

The private eye business is certainly going downhill, if you ask me such a question.

For a time, private detectives were leaping about boudoirs like so many camera-equipped galleons. It made the finest kind of our journalism material.

Ladies were the greatest clients of private investigators.

"I FEAR THAT heel who calls himself my breadwinner is up to no good," they said. "Investigate."

In short order, the gentleman would be bugged, tailed and in trouble.

"Your loving Johnny is kicking up his heels," the investigator would report. He would then take the lady on an evening safari. Busting down doors and dodging punches from the irate transgressor.

Ah, me. Those were the days.

WELL, THE OTHER evening I settled down with a good book. "The Case of the Missing Canary." Or some such provocative title.

The cover is varnished and shows a lady sinking on the divan. The private eye in the picture is giving her a searching glance. And doing a little search with his mitts, too—though possibly he is looking to see does she have any smelling salts on her.

"I took a look out through the window," the story starts. "The desk drawer was open: A flask of medium rye and my pearl-handled .38. In the outer office, I could hear the staccato click of my secretary's typewriter."

"She was a good kid. But it wasn't for me..."

THE SECRETARY is never for the private eye. The secretary is all peach pie and she looks at the private eye like a cat looking over a fish market. But she is not for him.

You know who is after him? An a la mode dish with mink coats and the disposition of a tigress.

She is also not for him. (I don't understand these private eyes. But they are bearcats for business. They keep their mind right on the corpse. For the live ones, they have no time.)

THIS IS NOT the way I remember the private eye business. Private eyes were the cream in my coffee when I was scribbling historical notes for the dailies.

The raids were usually rather private affairs. But the private eyes used to call us up later and give us some startling, eye-witness descriptions.

"HOW ABOUT THOSE lush clients that fling themselves at your head?" I asked one juicy evening. "Like I read in the private eye books."

The private eye said that the client lady was nothing you would flip a wig over.

"The ones we break in on during the raid," he said. "That's for me."

THAT IS WHAT really happens to private eyes. Though as I say, I haven't read a good, rip-roaring private detective raid in some years.

It wasn't for me," says the detective in the book.

"I wish it was for me," says the real-life detective wistfully. Fiction is stranger than fact. And that's a fact.

WHEN I READ such books, I often wonder what I would do if I were a private detective. This book I was reading now. Does this lame brain give the eagle eye to the dolly with the oil wells and the 36-22-36?

No. He gives her some good advice. And goes out to look for the missing canary.

I would like to be a private eye. With deep-dish apple pie typing my letters and bringing in the morning coffee. But I don't suppose it would make a book. Never get out of the office.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., — Robert M. Kennedy, chief counsel for the Senate Rackets Committee, in a speech on the Teamsters Union:

"In every major industrial area the Teamsters Union is controlled by men with criminal records ranging from armed robbery to extortion."

EARL WILSON:

Makes It As 'New Ziegfeld'

NEW YORK—An out-of-town boy did it again.

David Merrick is Broadway's "new new Ziegfeld" — not to be confused with Broadway's "old new Ziegfelds" (Mike Todd and Billy Rose) — but a few days ago he was about to commit suicide by jumping off his money.

"I might even go back into law practice," he said, tearing his mustache savagely.

He was feeling funeral despite his success with "Suzy Wong." He had briefly topped Ziegfeld's record by having five shows on B'way (counting one that hadn't opened but was playing previews). He was employing 250 actors, 200 stagehands and 150 musicians, paying them $150,000 a week. But his life was a cup of ashes, because two of the new shows were financial flops and the third looked unpromising, too.

The B.W. and I went to a first-night party for the last one — "La Plume de Ma Tante." It was sort of sad.

"Poor Dave didn't even show," somebody said. "Guess this one'll get murdered by the critics..."

Suddenly somebody was waving newspapers and saying "It's a smash!" and the party guests who hadn't liked the show half an hour ago were now crazy about it. By next day, Dave Merrick, 47, a former legal eagle from St. Louis and Austin, Texas, was trying to save "Epitaph for George Dillflop," and was planning two new shows, "Gypsy" and "Destry Rides Again."

"A certain rich Broadwayite tells me that investing money in a show is the same as shooting craps with it," I told Merrick. "Sure, it's a gamble... but my regular backers haven't lost any money," he answered.

Promoter, merchandiser, genius at "the big advance sale," he's a gimmick guy. When he produced "Clutterbuck," bellboys were always paging "Mr. Clutterbuck" in cocktail lounges. Next came "The Matchmaker." An English taxi seemingly chauffeured by a monkey bore a saying, "I'm driving my boss to see 'The Matchmaker'."

"Fanny" presented many possibilities which he rejected. It makes Merrick unhappy to be called a merchandiser.

"I left law to produce," he explains. "I had dreamed of forensic feats before jury duty. I found out lawyers don't go to court. Now that I'm a producer, I'm a 'merchandiser.' But what'm I kicking about? A minister friend of mine spends most of his time in cemeteries—burying people."

THE MIDNIGHT EARL... Mickey Rooney and Joey Foreman's new act at the Copacabana will be the talk of Show Business, for it's sensational. Mickey starts out by thanking Warner's "for doing my life story, 'Giant,'" and Joey says "As you approach Las Vegas you see a sign saying 'Gas'—Take it!"

A confidential police report reveals that not one of the recent charges made against Frank Sinatra by a photographer was substantiated... Lunching at the Essex House, Mary Boland and Charles Ruggles... Marilyn Monroe's tardiness and days off on "Some Like It Hot" pleased the extras—gave them a lot of extra work.

Xavier Cugat returning from Europe, will go before TV quiz investigators... Kathy Grant Crosby, publicizing "The Seven Voyages of Sinbad," threatens to walk out if interviewers ask personal questions... Nelson Rockefeller bought two of Walter Slezak's Weimaraner pooches...

One of Lars Schmidt's friends is standing by here — he'll fly to Paris to be best man at the Ingrid Bergman wedding if her annulment comes through.

The Hit Parade TV'er wants to bring back its former stars for the Christmas show... Mickey Mantle flew into town, dined at the Harwyn, flew back to Texas next day... The Cricket, an off-B'way theater showing a play about a Jewish family, served herring and wine at intermission...

Several Las Vegas cafes are after Maria Callas... Director Richard Quine and his wife celebrated their divorce hearing by going to her apt. for cocktails—Piano star Errol Garner just bought a piano—the first he's ever owned.

Jean Seberg's new husband goes into the French army soon... Herbert Hoover's writing a two-volume history of America.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: Rob't. Q. Lewis tells of the divorce attorney's son who had trouble with math. He was poor at adding and subtracting, but he was a whiz at dividing.

WISH I'D SAID THAT: Just about the time a man says "I do," he learns about the things he'd better not... — Les Carpenter.

A would-be actress described her recent success: "I'm not getting any jobs, but I'm being turned down for bigger roles..." That's earl, brother.

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Tamiroff Signs for Western

HOLLYWOOD—Maurice Chevalier tells me he'll be tickled to play the part of the terrible old sex fiend in the Kubrick-Harris movie version of the highly censorable but big-selling "Lolita" if the producers will UP the age of the novel's 12-year-old "nymphet" and cast Brigitte Bardot in the part.

Thank Heaven for Little Girls: I understand Kubrick & Harris will launder "Lolita" by doing exactly what Chevalier suggests and making the girl "the image of another young girl that the old man loved and lost long, long ago."

AKIM TAMIROFF signed for a Rifleman segment. That's a gas — Russian — born Tamiroff starring in a good old American hoo opera. Giddyapnik!... Pvt. Ben Cooper told Republic Studios to forget the contract they've been holding for him — he'll renege if the Army comes up with the deal he wants.

Ava Gardner, completely fed up with Europe and the idea of saving money by residing abroad will be moving back to Hollywood soon. Her long-term Metro contract is almost washed up so she'll be free to accept all those rich, ripe independent movie deals — also the attentions of the Hollywood pack!

IT'S ABSOLUTELY vital that an actor have an agent to represent him in Hollywood. Tony Randall reports — because an actor's gotta have SOMEBODY to blame when he gives a bad performance!

Frank Sinatra took a slug of Joi Lansing's body — building brew, Tiger's Milk (soybean powder, brewer's yeast, skim milk, pure honey, ripe banana, wheat germ oil and orange juice, all fluffed together in an electric blender) — and, says he, "I came UNGLUED!"

Bob (Wagon Train) Horton and Susan (Union Pacific) Cummings are bumper-to-bumper and bride-to-bridge... Double-feature movie bill in downtown Los Angeles: "The Spider" and "The Fly."

SHIRLEY BOOTH is set to do the musical version of Sean O'Casey's "Juno and the Paycock" in the role originated by the magical, magnificent Sara Allgood for the Abbey Players of Dublin. The Broadway-bound tuneshow is called "Darlin' Man."

Universal-International, short on star dressing rooms, is going crazy building and re-building dressing quarters for the Stars (with a Capital S) coming to the studio for "Spartacus" — Sir Laurence Olivier, Kirk Douglas, Charles Laughton, Peter Ustinov (temper, temper — and how many star dressing rooms can you have?) — plus space for such U-incumbents and incomers as Doris Day, Rock Hudson, Tony Curtis, Sandra Dee, John Saxon, Jean Simmons and Audie Murphy. I tellya, we have our problems out here!

CHANNEL CHATTER — The Screen Actors' and Extras' Guild are screaming at Hollywood's TV producers, just as they screamed at the moviemakers, for shooting so many teleseries abroad, thus depriving their members of work. But I'm afraid the unionites will get Absolutely Nowhere with either the producers or the sponsors of the shows, for the simple reason that it's cheaper to shoot these shows overseas.

Debbie Reynolds' carefully dictated announcement that Liz Taylor deserves the best-actress Oscar this year for "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof" drew this crack from a seider on Eddie Fisher's rehearsal stage: "Debbie deserves that Oscar!"

JERRY LEWIS CAME home after 12 weeks in the hospital and Sid Caesar and Milton Berle cheered him up by visiting him with two big bouquets of weeds...

Actor whose favorite pastime is bowling: "Sure I believe in spanking my kids, but I always play it safe — I never use my bowling hand!"

MGM is motioning David Janssen away from his Richard Diamond series to play the guy who does the asking in "Ask Any Girl"...

The kid with the black eye on the cover of Dennis Day's LP album for Christmas (and that's Jack Benny in the Santa Claus outfit) is Dennis' son Paddy.

G. E. THEATRE is angling Art Linkletter to chew some scenery as Carleton Capenter's father in "The Oddball"...

Loren Grey, non-acting son of the late Zane Grey, signed to play one of the lads who heads 'em off at the next canyon in a Kane Grey Theatre segment.

Just in time, he found her just in time, at Albert McCleery's Beatnik birthday brawl for his better-half, and now their theme song is "Just in Time," so Nina Foch's pet name for Donald Buka is "Justin"...

DuPont is kicking Donald Murray for its December Show of the Month, "The Hasty Heart."

Definitions, Please

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Write your own definition of what a major nation is. Surely some-where you would say that such a nation looks after its own. But in his Nov. 5 press conference President Eisenhower answered the same question as follows:

What was he going to do about the continuing loss of American life and property in the Cuban revolution led by Fidel Castro?

Answer: "Well, there is very little to state except what our policy is: it is to keep out of everything so far as is humanly possible in such a thing as that, except when our own citizens are involved, and then to take the proper steps to protect them."

WHAT ABOUT Red China?

"... Red China continues to do some of the things which we cannot possibly stomach, one of them being that after promising two years ago to give back all our prisoners, and people whom we think are illegally held, they still will do nothing about it."

What about that Air Force plane crash in Soviet Armenia from which the Russians have returned six unidentified corpses and have not returned eleven other crew members, dead or alive?

Answer: "Well, all you can do with a government such as the Soviet is to protest and to request more information. So far it has not been forthcoming."

IN VIEW OF SUCH strong provocations and weak reactions, you wonder what a foreign policy is for. We have two million men under arms, many of them slung involuntarily and "selected" to serve the nation. We maintain strong fleets in the Mediterranean, the Pacific, the Caribbean. We keep two battle-ready divisions of Marines.

We have a continuously growing number of officials, tourists and businessmen abroad. We have about four dozen interlocking treaties. And yet, this vast complex of internationalism seems not to serve — or seems not even intended to serve — the simplest and minimal purposes of being a major nation.

QUERIES ABOUT Cuban outlaws who hijack airplanes and capture and kill Americans are considered irrelevant and unimportant. The aging question of our deserted prisoners in Red China is quickly brushed under the rug. And a really powerful news story by Warren Unna, in the Washington Post, revealing the calculated insolence and Stone Age callousness of the Soviet Government, gets the Presidential shrug of what-can-you-do-with-such-a-government?

Strangely, the internationalists among us, statesmen and writers have always regarded Mr. Eisenhower's foreign policy as satisfactory and, in their highest praise, "strong." The criteria used, year after year, to measure the strength of foreign policy are the same — how many dollars in foreign aid, how many alliances have we added, how many miles has the Secretary of State logged to attend conferences and such.

JUST RECENTLY a reporter encountered Senator Green, chairman of Foreign Relations, trotting along Sixteenth Street, in a pleasant hustle like the White Rabbit in "Alice in Wonderland." The Senator paused to smile with delight as he remarked that he "had to go abroad" again.

Then, Senator Kennedy, another Foreign Relations member, told us on a Sunday telecast that the foreign policy would improve in the new Senate. How improve? Well, he named two measures with which his own name was associated. One was further aid to Communist satellites; the other was U. S. participation in India's five-year plan.

These are things that make you wonder whether the modern definition of foreign policy is not a "policy for foreigners." When, if ever, are we going back to fundamentals of American self-interest in her property and persons? How long, Oh, Lord, how long? —Holmes Alexander

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., — Senate Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson, in a speech on outer space: "Peace is the first and greatest opportunity space affords."

HOUSTON, Tex., — Col. Walter Williams, one of the last two survivors of the Confederate Army, on the Civil War: "We could have gotten along without it."

CHESTER, N.Y. — Malcolm White, 48, a manufacturer before fatally shooting Alfred Dugan, 52, ex-convict organizer of an independent union which was trying to win the plant workers from the AFL union:

"I have nothing against labor and strikes if they are legitimate. As long as people follow Dugan they can't get anything but trouble from him."

NEW YORK — "en. Albert C. Wedemeyer in renewing his call for breaking relations with the Soviet Union and eliminating it from the United Nations:

"We must indicate clearly to the Kremlin that we are not going to yield, or bend a knee, to their aggressions."

CHICAGO — Confessed killer Charles Melquist, 23, when asked by police why he smothered pretty Bonnie Leigh Scott, 15, and left her body in a forest preserve:

"I just don't know."

NE WYORK — Bernard Baruch in warning that inflation must be denounced regularly like sin or it will destroy a nation:

"But unfortunately, like sin, it is tolerated, encouraged and indeed enjoyed by many."

PHILADELPHIA — John Cardinal O'Hara, on being named a cardinal by Pope John XXIII:

"The funny part about being a cardinal is that soon after they fire a man in this country for old age, the church puts him to work."

Editor Desert Sun

In concluding our campaign for Proposition No. 16, let us thank you for your editorial support. No recent issue in California politics was so unanimously condemned by the press.

Certainly you were most generous in the use of your news space in clarifying the issue. We hope that these repeated attempts to tax non-profit schools have come to an end.

Sincerely yours,

1958-59 TEEN-ANGEL, Dianne Copass, polishes up Zaddie Bunker's famed "Old Rockin' Chair" for her trip to Imperial Valley, and in return Mrs. Bunker hands Dianne a check to be turned over to the Angel View Crippled Children's Foundation at Desert Hot Springs. Dianne has spent a great deal of time around airplanes as she is the granddaughter of the late James W. Montee, whose record as the world's oldest pilot still stands. Dianne flew for the first time at the age of five when her grandfather celebrated his 85th birthday (Francis Guderger Photo).

Mobile Homes

By BETTY SCHROEDER

Beneath the stars and under the blue skies, situated in the most beautiful California area is the Blue Skies Trailer Park. With its appropriate musical name, signifying happiness, this outstanding mobile home park, which is the dream of Bing Crosby and other movie celebrities, is now enjoying over 90 per cent occupancy.

The many happy guests are meeting at the pool and are having fun together at the barbecues and planned recreation offered them.

NEW RESIDENT managers Ed and Bert Fisher with Mr. and Mrs. Rex Thompson, are offering more than ever now in gracious living the "Mobile Way." Here again you find the magic ingredient that draws all who observe this new way of living.

With friendliness, fun, beauty and comfort, plus companionship with those of like interests, there is no wonder why guests who stay here are so happy with their mobile life.

THE NEW MANAGERS have pot lucks, dances and barbecues planned for the future, with some of their events to be shared with other Mobile Park residents of the area.

Blue Skies, with its landscaped individual spaces plus its parklike setting for their pool and recreation hall, is a proud part of the jewel-like Palm Springs area.

Desert Trailer Park

The residents of Desert Trailer Village have now established Monday afternoons as their hobby and sewing afternoons. Mrs. Hap Ward, whose excellent idea started the get together, will be the main helper and unofficial chairman of the group.

Wednesday's luncheon, which is held every week by the ladies of the park, will also have a new aspect this week as the gentlemen of the park are also invited this week.

Ray Myers celebrated his birthday Nov. 10, and received many good wishes from all in the park.

New arrivals this past week include Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Meek from Long Beach and Mr. and Mrs. Tonie Mitchell.

New residents of Rancho lately include Mr. and Mrs. Ford and Mr. and Mrs. Bows, both from Vista; Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Whitet and Alice Burk from Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Plummer from Redding and Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Coss from Reseda.

The holiday card party given last week was very successful. Hostesses were Clara Lane, Ethel Sipple and Martha Painter, and the hall was decorated with cats and witches to carry out the seasonal theme.

ON SATURDAY night, November 15, Benny Benoit, resident of Rancho and owner of the Desert Aire Dress Shop, presented her first Fashion Show in the Rancho Recreation Hall. Refreshments were served and residents of the participating parks were in attendance.

Residents who have returned to Rancho include Florence Winston from Pebble Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Platt Morricks and Mrs. Ann Cook, sister of Mr. Morrow, all of Spokane, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. C. Corder, the J. L. Moores from Idaho, the A. E. Sheltons and Homer Beans from the Campbell River, B.C., the I. Hagues, Mr. and Mrs. Weatherhold and Mr. and Mrs. Snyder, who spent the summer at Hood Canal, Wash.

AFTER AN ABSENCE of two and a half years, Muriel and R. O. German of Calgary, Alberta, arrived back in Rancho last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. German have crossed the continent twice during their absence and spent 15 months in Southern Florida. However, their stay in Florida was necessitated by an illness suffered by Roy. They state they are happy to return to Rancho and are very busy renewing many friendships made previously.

Watchdog

PIETSFIELD, Vt. — (UPI)— A sleeping dog proved more dangerous than a barking one to Gardner Baker, 48. Aroused early one morning by a disturbance behind his farmhouse, Baker took a .22 caliber pistol to investigate. He tripped over his sleeping dog and the weapon discharged, sending a shell through the farmer's right thigh. He never did discover the cause of the noise.
